Ine hauses Commission are hard at work gathering up testimony as to the disturbances in that region. It is, so far, all ex parte, and confirms the news that has been reported and exaggerated for a year past, in all the auti Democratic papers. At some of the voting places, the testimony is, that men from Missouri voted in large nothing new brought to light. All this was shown parly. before the Committee on Territories, at Washington, and stated in the report made by Douglas to the Senate. These outrages only affected the election of six or seven of the candidates for the Kansas Legislature, and they were set aside by Reader himself, and another election held. In fact, the u-nal means to correct such doings were resorted to; but the Legislature of the Territory was not affected by these lawless acts, as to lu legal character. Against the election of the mass ol its members, nothing is alleged. It cannot be pretended that Wni field's election to Congress Is invalidated; for he get mearly all the votes polled

Granting the ontrages alleged, at some of the voting places, what is the remedy? Nullification and revolution?

If the regular operations of the laws of the Terrivery and of the tederal government were luadequate to redress such grievances, and afford scenrity against them hereafter, then it would be time to consider the question of revolution. As it is, this open rebellion against the recognized an thority of the Territory, and the laws of the United States, is treason, and must be treated as such. It is folly to empose that the people of the United States will support open resistance to law on such pretences. The robels will find no support in the scher second thought of the people. When legal and peaceable means of redress have failed, after a fair total, a resort to force will find symnathy but when men emigrate to a Territory to rebel against the regular operations of a government es tablished there, and carry their wespons along for the purpose, they deserve the penalty that the law will mete out to such cases. There is no doubt but the ac uni residents of Kanene will have a fair opportunity to vote their sentiments, and that, too, at an early day. It is absurd to suppose that these dieturbances will last long. Men will tire of such unprestable operations. There must be sold for ninety-eight and a half cents on the lady, it is morally certain they are not married. peace and justice in Kaneas; her people must be allowed to yo'e, namplested, their own sentiments; and we have no hesitation in saying, that this right will be secured to them. We should never consent to admit Kaneas as a State into this Union, with a conscitution adopted under a reign of terror, no matter whether it were a free or a alave State constitution. When the present excitement masses away, the blame of these disturhances in Kansas will be luid where it beiongs, at the door of outside intermeddlers, who adopted extraordinary means to fill Kansas with Abolition voters. No such disturbances in a territory ever happened before, because ne such reprehensible means to carry out a party purpose were ever adopted before. Let those who adopted such means account to the world for the consequences. O.hers are not guiltless who adopted lawless means to counteract insidious efficts to their in-

Grant all that the factionists alloge, as to fraudsas, that were perpetrated in this city on the sixth mnrders by wholesale, nor honse-burning, nor their deeds along with them. It will be so in

It is not to be dieguised, that all this disturbance is the work of a party that adopted extraordinary means to accomplish a party purpose. If Emigrant Aid societies had never existed, the people of Kausas might have voted either one way or the other on the elavery question, without making a ripple on the surface, in the South, at the place where the buy had been seen, but the place where the buy had been seen, but

And all this is justified by the Abolitionists, by of the cance. They assume that all means are justifiable to crush ont slavery. To do this, the peace and harmony of the Union will be sacrificed. They have already come to the conclusion that the federal government is not to be trusted; that the cause of freedom, as they cal' it, requires extraord nary, if not revolutionary out a short time.

At or near Ft. Calhoun, N. T., a man named Coon was shot and instantly killed by a man P. distruct and anarchy. They are resolved on correcting what they doem a great evil, by law or by for a. The spirit they manifest is numistakable ; restrained by no soruples as to law and order, and posed to have been murdered by Mr. Shook. Land no respect for the regular operations of our institntions. The attempt to drag Kansas into the Union upon a bogus constitution, gotten up by a party, shows the extravagant lengths they are ready to go to accomplish their end. It will be
